

Brown Bag It New York!!!

Sponsored by:
PULSE of New York,
Patient Safety Advisory Council
&
St. John's University
College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions

Community members - gather up all your prescription and over-the-counter medicines and take them to a pharmacist for review. On hand will be pharmacy students, interns, and pharmacist servicing your community.

Brown Bag it New York will help patients learn about medication safety, interactions and possible side effects in a comfortable friendly environment.

Appointments suggested and may be made in advance - call: (516) 579-4711

Where: Freeport Memorial Library, 144 W, Merrick Road Freeport, LI NY

When: Friday, June 10, 2011

Time: 10:00 AM – 1:00 pm

FREE BLOOD PRESSURE SCREENING AND RECORD KEEPING INSTRUCTIONS

About PULSE: PULSE is a nonprofit 501 (c)3 grassroots organization dedicated to raising awareness about patient safety and reducing medical errors through advocacy, education, and support. We work to empower the public to make informed decisions, increase effective communication and respect between healthcare providers and the public, and create community partnerships that will foster and ultimately lead to safer healthcare environments.

www.pulseofny.org

About St. Johns University College of Pharmacy: One of the most respected schools of its kind, the College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions prepares students for rewarding careers as practitioners, researchers, and leaders in government and industry. Our students enjoy superlative academic programs, first-rate faculty and outstanding placement opportunities.

www.stjohns.edu